

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

Provost's Award for Excellence in Community Engaged Scholarship

Community Engaged Scholarship is integral to the academic endeavor and to the institution-wide mission of a land grant university. It is defined as the collaborative and mutually-beneficial creative exchange of knowledge and resources between the University and the community to create conditions for the public good, culminating in sustainable change, and the dissemination of those activities.

6 AWARD CATEGORIES INCLUDING:

- Tenure-track faculty members
- Non-tenure track faculty members
- Undergraduate students
- Advanced degree students
- Staff
- Teams/Programs

For selection criteria and additional information, please visit provost.uconn.edu/events-and-recognition/awards

11/1

NOVEMBER 1

Nominations are due electronically to the Office of the Provost.

UConn